

WE - TOUR 02

The Sigiriya Rock Fortress

Sigiriya, also known as 'Sinhagiri' is a UNESCO World Heritage Site and is one of the best examples for well-preserved ancient urban planning. The site was selected by King Kasyapa for his new capital where he built his palace on top of the rock; decorated with colourful frescos along its sides.

About 35 kilometers northeast of Sigiriya lay the Minneriya National Park. Minneriya was declared a wildlife sanctuary in order to protect the catchment and also the wildlife surrounding the area. The 'Tank' has a historical importance, having been built in the 3rd century AD by King Mahasen. During the dry season, large numbers of elephants gather by the tank, known as the Elephant Gathering.

The ancient city of Polonnaruwa with its vast history, ancient ruins and architecture are also located 60 kilometers away.

You would be able to make a stop at the Pinnawela Elephant Orphanage on your way where you could observe baby elephants being bottle-fed and taken care of. The elephants under the care of the orphanage take a group bath at the nearby river.
